

Guide: Charges For Bidding on Yahoo Auctions

STEP 1

When you win a item on Yahoo we have to contact the seller and agree to buy the item.

Please note that unlike eBay the seller can choose to cancel the listing after the auction has ended.

If the seller is cool, we both agree on the sale. We then request the postage from the seller to our office.

STEP 2 - INVOICE A

We will send you an invoice for:

A - The cost of the item that you won

B - A standard bank charge of 300 yen which we incur when we pay the seller.

C - A standard bank charge of 300 yen for your transfer into our bank account.

E - Our commission rate

STEP 3

We then arrange to take receipt of your item. We will then store your item until you request us to send it to you.

STEP 2 - INVOICE B

We will send you an invoice for:

A - Any additional packaging for international shipping

B - The cost of the domestic postage from the seller to our office.

C - The cost of the International Shipping

E - A standard bank charge of 300 yen for your